CORAM: R.S.MOHITE J.
22nd NOVEMBER, 2006

P.C.

. Heard.

2. Additional compilation of documents which include the revised CARA NOC dated 6th November, 2006, employer's certificate dated 13th September, 2006 and fresh declaration of biological mother taken simultaneously before the scrutiny officer as well as notary of the certificate of renewal of enlistment by CARA is taken on record. The affidavit dated 17th November, 2006 has been filed by the Asstt.Police Inspector, Santacruz Police Station, Mumbai indicating that the premises taken by the family of the biological mother are not demolished as has been erroneously stated in the affidavit of the officer of the Indian Agency. It appears that the affidavit has been filed without proper investigation. In the interest of justice by giving the benefit of doubt no action is taken and it is made clear that such careless affidavits would not be filed in future. An unconditional apology is tendered on behalf of the Indian agency. the same is accepted. The Judge’s order is, therefore, signed separately.

3. Petition is disposed off.
